About:

Dr. S. Nirmala is heading the department of Physics from January 2021. She has been awarded Ph.D. degree in Crystallography in the year 2010. She has a total experience of thirty four years in academics and research. She has published thirty research papers in International Journals and has participated in a number of Conferences. Her areas of research interest are Biophysics, Crystallography, Spectroscopy and Density Functional Theory.

She is a recognized supervisor of Anna University Chennai and has produced one Ph. D. She has received funds from SERB and BRNS four times for conducting National Conference on Materials. She has co-authored a book titled 'Engineering Physics' by Wiley Publications, 2014.
